Pan Athenian

Imagine a ballroom large enough for five-hundred guests; imagine beautiful chandeliers shedding light from faint to bright; imagine a dance floor grand enough for all your guests. The Pan Athenian Ballroom is truly an over the top union of class, elegance and luxury.

Visualize your guests celebrating your entrance into a perfectly decorated reception with your crisp custom linens, beautiful floral arrangements and custom ice sculpture created for your special day.

The Pan Athenian Ballroom was renewed in 2008, adding to its already grandeur appearance. Gorgeous cathedral ceilings, intricately decorated walls, and broad windows allow for ample light; making this a one of a kind reception space.

Adelphia's Pan

Athenian Center

Adelphia's Pan Athenian Center is a combination of cozy and rustic décor, making this reception space perfect for intimate receptions with up to 200 guests. This space is decorated with one of a kind hand painted walls, sparkling chandeliers and tactfully draped ceilings. Having this unique space located on our first floor will make you and your guests feel as if you are the only guests in the building.

Say I Do...

Have your ceremony on-site at Adelpia and choose from four different locations. Adelpia will also add a half hour to your already 5½ hour event, making for a total of a 6 hour affair!

Guests will be pleased as they are welcomed by our complementary valet before entering. As they enter our beautifully decorated foyer, they will be greeted by our friendly staff and directed to your chosen ceremony space. Once guests enter the space they will immediately notice your customized set up, crisp chair coverings, and hand tied bows.

Don't worry, guests won't be able to get a peek at you before the ceremony. Our trained staff will keep you comfortable in our private Bridal Suite prior to saying "I do".

Cocktail Hour

Choose to join guests in your private indoor/outdoor cocktail hour, or remain away from the festivities until making your grand entrance during the reception. If you choose to stay away, this is a great time to take formal photos in our many photo locations.

Your guests deserve the very best, which is why a 5½ hour premium top-shelf open bar is a standard for our wedding packages. Our trained bar staff will even make a signature cocktail of your choice!

Choose from over twenty-four butlered Hors d'Oeuvres and over twelve Appetizer stations to have served and replenished throughout cocktail hour.

Delightfully

Start off your dinner service with one of Adelpia's twenty soup selections, or offer a refreshing sorbet course before the salad course.

Choose from over three different entrée service styles at Adelpia. Surprise guests with a Entrée Medley such as a juicy Filet Mignon and a mouth watering Lobster Tail. Keep it more on the traditional side and choose two of Adelpia's thirty Entrée Selections. Or offer your guests Adelpia's Pan Athenian Service where they'll have the chance to have all three of the entrées you've selected.

Delicious

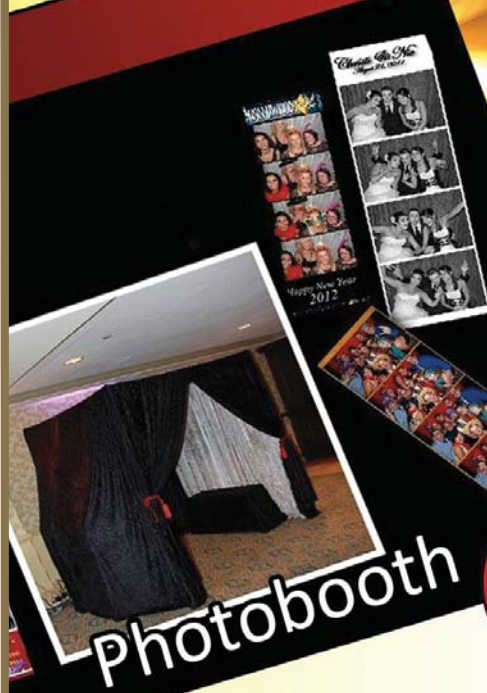

You will get to design the wedding cake of your dreams that is as delicious as it is beautiful. Guests will be overwhelmed with excitement when they visit the unforgettable dessert table. With a variety of mini pastries, assorted layer cakes, ice cream bar with assorted toppings and a chocolate fountain served with fresh fruit; no one will leave with an empty stomach!

You'll never have to worry about anyone leaving hungry; whichever dinner service you choose will leave everyone smiling and satisfied.

A close-up photograph of a champagne flute. A single, vibrant red strawberry with a green stem is perched on the rim of the glass. The glass is filled with a clear liquid, likely champagne, which is visible through the stem. The background is softly blurred, featuring a bouquet of white and yellow flowers with green leaves. In the upper left corner, there are two warm, out-of-focus bokeh lights. The overall mood is elegant and celebratory.
